ESSENTIAL Information

TIME

GMT +8 (same time zone as Singapore, Malaysia & Hong Kong)

AIRPORT

Brunei International Airport (BWN) is a 15 minute drive from the city centre and most hotels around the capital, Kuala Belait, the centre of the oil and gas industry, is about an hour and a half away. Taxis, buses and car rentals are available.

CURRENCY

The Brunei Dollar (BND) is on par with the Singapore Dollar (SGD). The two currencies are accepted in both countries. ATMs from international and local banks are widely available, while major credit cards are accepted in most establishments (tipping is optional).

LANGUAGE

Bahasa Melayu (Malay) is the local dialect. English is the language of business and widely spoken throughout the country.

CLIMATE

Daily average temperatures range from 22 to 33 degrees celcius (71.6F to 91.4F) year round. Rainfall averages 3.5 metres (138 inches) annually, with no distinct rainy season.

ISLAMIC ETIQUETTE

Brunei Darussalam is a country that prides itself on the diversity of its people – including their religions. Visitors are welcome in mosques, however, proper attire is required; women must cover their head, shoulders and knees. Please ask for permission before taking photographs – particularly inside.

Mosques are usually closed on Thursday and Friday, and during prayer times.

FRIDAY PRAYERS

All banks, businesses, offices, places of interest, retail, food and beverage outlets are closed between 12 noon and 2pm on Fridays to observe Friday prayers for Muslims.

CLOTHING

Light, comfortable clothing is suitable year round. Modest, non-revealing clothing is appropriate for visiting places of worship, homes and official buildings.

TOBACCO AND ALCOHOL

No duty free allowance for cigarettes and tobacco products, which must be declared and taxed. Smoking is prohibited in all public areas. Sales and public consumption of alcoholic beverages is forbidden. Non-Muslims 17 years and above can import duty free two (2) bottles of wine or spirits and 12 cans of beer for private consumption.

UTILITIES

Electricity is 220-240 volts AC, 50 cycles, 3-pin British type plugs. Country telephone code is +673. Mobile phone networks (DST and Progresif Cellular) have roaming agreements with most countries. Internet Country Code is .bn. Wi-Fi hotspots are widely available in downtown areas.

HEALTH REQUIREMENTS

Yellow Fever vaccination if arriving from infected areas. Malaria prophylaxis is not necessary as most tropical diseases have been eradicated. Water is safe to drink. Health and safety standards are generally high.

MUST TRY Food

Temburong District besides being popular for its rich pristine natural rainforests, is also well-known for its local cuisine and snacks such as:

- 1 UDANG GALAH (KING PRAWN)
this is often the most sought after dish by Bruneians where it is mostly available from this district.
- 2 WAJID TEMBURONG
wrapped with Nyirik leaves, wajid is steamed rice slowly cooked in sugar and coconut cream.
- 3 CENDOL TEMBURONG
made of rice grains and mixed with water, cendol is green in colour. Sweet tasting, it is most suitable to quench one's thirst.
- 4 BAMBOO CHICKEN
A traditional Iban dish known locally as 'Manuk Pansuh', chicken is seasoned and steamed inside bamboo stalks over a charcoal fire.
- 5 PUCUK UBI
Sweet potato leaves simmered in a coconut gravy. It is commonly served with rice, chicken and beef dishes.
- 6 TELUR MASIN
Duck eggs are soaked in brine or packed in damp, salted charcoal. Its distinctive salty taste makes it a very popular dish among the locals and can be eaten on its own or with main dishes.

Temburong

Brunei's easternmost district is an enclave separated from the rest of the country by Sarawak's Limbang division and Brunei Bay. It covers an area of 1,288 square kilometers and contains a sizable chunk of Borneo's preserved tracts of primary rainforest and untamed wilderness. The timeless Temburong River has carved out nipah palm and mangrove-lined waterways across the land which serve as the main access routes to this tranquil district.
