Labai Coffee Farm. To learn more about the district's secluded ibon culture and community, visit the Mendaram Besar Forest Recreation Park, Wasai Terajo (Terajo Waterfalls), and the Tropical Biodiversity Centre.

For the nature enthusiast, strap on your hiking shoes as you explore locations such as the Terajo Longhouse and Terajo Longhouse. And before you return home, relax with a locally produced brew at Mendaram Besar. The district has a vast history willing to be discovered, and you can find out more about the district's rich oil and gas history, such as the ubiquitous Nodding Donkey, the stunning Billionth Barrel Monument, and the immersive Seria Energy Lab.

Much of Brunei's economic development is owed to this district, where oil was discovered in 1929. You'll see many landmarks that commemorate Belait's rich oil and gas history, such as the ubiquitous Nodding Donkey, the stunning Billionth Barrel Monument, and the immersive Seria Energy Lab.
